EAT

BARRENJOEY HOUSE,

Fun fact - Barrenjoey House is 100 years old! A heritage bar, restaurant and guest house, it's set right on the Palm Beach waterside and offers a sophisticated yet relaxed dining experience. Sorry in advance for the menu anxiety - seafoods, pastas, flatbreads - probably best to just order everything and settle in for the day.

DRINK

ALMA AVALON,

Serving up the best margaritas in Avalon, Alma is a local favourite known for their 'coastal Mexican inspired' experience and buzzing social atmosphere. Happy hour is 4-6pm Tuesday-Sunday so why not pop in for a cocktail and mandatory chips n guac?!

SWIM

PALM BEACH

Oh hey Summer Bay! Palm Beach is a favourite amongst the rich and famous for a reason. We particularly love the south corner for a peaceful protected swim in crystal clear water. The best thing - on a less crowded day you can park right next to the sand and it's only a few steps until you're in the water.

SURF

AVALON

Three spots to choose from: North Av (a consistent left hander), South Av (a consistent right hander) and Little Avalon (technically a slab, produces a really fun barrelling ride when it's good but breaks over a shallow rock ledge so it's not for the faint hearted!)

SUNRISE

SOUTH AVALON HEADLAND

Get up for first light and grab a coffee at 'Classic Coffee' Kombi Van to watch the sunrise from South Avalon Headland. Hopefully it looks a little like this!

SUNSET

CLAREVILLE BEACH

Nothing screams summer like a pretty sunset, a beer and some good old fashioned fish and chips. Bring down the good stuff with a speaker, a picnic rug and an esky filled with drinks and enjoy your own happy hour at Clareville Beach for sundown.
