EAT NORTH BONDI FISH

A Matt Moran restaurant, NBF is known for its delicious seafood and cocktails with a beautiful waterfront location. The perfect place for a long lunch, dinner, drinks and everything in between.

DRINK HOTEL RAVESIS

"A historic building and an icon of coastal hospitality", Ravesis is a well known social spot for cocktails on their wrap around terrace bar with a breathtaking view of Bondi Beach. It's a light filled open space by the beach, a vibrant slice of paradise.

SWIM CLOVELLY BEACH

You'll feel like you're in Europe at Sydney's very own concrete beach! If you're like us and love a peaceful swim in deep water without having to paddle past the breakers, you'll love Clovelly. Dive in straight from the platform, float, dry off without getting sandy feet. But the best part - plenty of parking (a bonus in the East!)

SURF BONDI BEACH

Have a surf at Australia's most iconic Bondi Beach if for nothing else, just to say you have. We recommend going during the week to avoid the worst of the crowds. Fibreglass boards are not allowed at North Bondi, so it's a good excuse to dust off the old foamie and head out for a bit of fun!

SUNRISE GORDON'S BAY

Start your day off on the right foot and visit the little bay located between two of Sydney's best beaches, Coogee and Clovelly. Grab your morning coffee to drink while you watch the sun rise and top it off with a coastal walk or a quick dip in off the rocks!

SUNSET CAMP COVE, WATSONS BAY

Get the best of both worlds by watching the sunset on Camp Cove beach with the city skyline in the background. It's a tranquil, secluded beach that is popular for sunset picnics. Don't feel like getting sandy? It's just a 7 minute stroll to Watson's Bay Boutique Hotel for an Aperol overlooking the ocean.
