

the BEACH LEGEND

BYRON BAY

EAT RAE'S ON WATEGOS

Exclusive luxury accommodation and dining located steps from Byron's Wategos Beach. Originally a kiosk, the white 1960s villa turned boutique hotel is one of Byron's most iconic destinations and is a must visit. Exceptional food, great cocktails and friendly staff, the closest thing you can get to the perfect Byron Bay experience.

DRINK BALCONY BAR

Located above the buzzing sounds of Byron Bay, Balcony Bar is the perfect place for an afternoon drink and a spot of people watching. It's only a short stroll to Main Beach where crowds gather to watch the sun set. Balcony offers long list of summer cocktails, craft beer and locally sourced food all in a Byron inspired beach house style setting.

SWIM WHITE'S BEACH

Escape the bustling crowds of Byron and head to the protected bay of White's Beach for a peaceful swim, just out of Broken Head. Once considered a 'secret' beach, unfortunately, it's out! But, there's plenty of sand to make you feel as if you've got the beach to yourself. White sands, crystal blue waters and a tropical trail down there. Heaven!

SURF BROKEN HEAD

If you've read any other of our One Sunny Days then you'll know we're big fans of world class, sand bottom, right hand point breaks. You guessed it, Broken Head is another one of those! Not that you can ever really escape the crowds in Byron, but this is definitely less busy than The Pass and probably the more experienced surfers' pick of the area.

SUNRISE COSY CORNER, TALLOWS BEACH

One of Australia's most photographed beaches, Cosy Corner at Tallows has never ending views stretching all the way out to Broken Head. Situated beneath the Cape Byron Lighthouse, it's an alternative sunrise spot for anyone who's already done the lighthouse or doesn't want to worry about parking. Then, you can run straight in to the surf for a morning swim!

SUNSET BEACH

Not to be confused for an actual beach, 'Beach' at Byron is a beautiful beach house style restaurant with magnificent views over the Pacific. A mouth watering seasonal menu, creative cocktails... all the good stuff. Bookings are essential. Ask for a table outside and watch the sun go down in style.
