EAT HUGOS, MANLY

An all time favourite of ours, you just can't go to Manly without going to Hugos. One of the best waterfront locations to dine out in Sydney, Hugos is known for their cocktails, pizza and its prime location on the wharf. We love sharing a feast, some vino, watching the city lights twinkle in the distance and the ferries meander across the harbour. Stunning!

DRINK JETTY BAR, MANLY WHARF BAR

The centre of Aussie Summers on the Northern Beaches and part of the affectionately known 'Wharfie', Jetty Bar is the go to bar for weekend afternoon drinks or a quick beer post work. Arrive in time for sunset and enjoy a drink whilst watching the ferries come in and the iconic 'SUP ball' games.

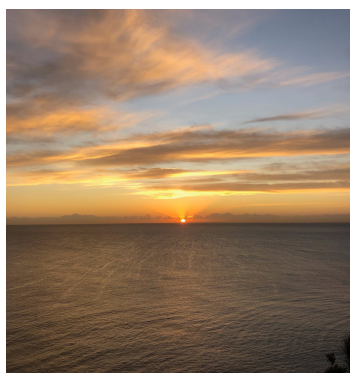

SWIM FAIRY BOWER

Dive (safely) straight off the rocks into the clear blue waters. With marine life below you, a few surfers out at Fairy Bower break and crowds gathering on the rocks, it's so serene it'll feel like paradise.

SURF SOUTH STEYNE CORNER

For all surfing abilities and preferences, South Steyne corner has a little something for everyone - body boarders, surf skis, long and short boarders, paddle boarders and Manly Surf School learners alike. The crowds have often died down by late afternoon and when conditions are right, it can be a beautiful spot and a bit of fun to cruise the baby waves at sundown.

SUNRISE SHELLY BEACH LOOKOUT

Park at Shelly Beach carpark and walk a short way up the trail to the top that overlooks Manly Beach. It will feel like you're sitting on a cloud as you watch the world wake up.

SUNSET NORTH HEAD LOOKOUT, MANLY

North Head Sanctuary is one of the most popular places to watch the sunset on the beaches. Bring your picnic rug, nibbles, drinks, set up on the grassy patch and watch the sun go down on Sydney's skyline and passing ferries.
