EAT THE WILD FLOWER BAR AND DINING

Located at the 5 star hotel Bells at Killcare, this restaurant is... 'inspired by the food of the sun'... um, yes. This will do for your One Sunny Day. In a beautiful and very instagrammable setting, the restaurant showcases the best of Italian, Mediterranean and Moroccan cuisine and the service is excellent. Treat yourself!

DRINK THE BOX ON THE WATER

This absolute beachfront, stylish new bar and restaurant at Ettalong is a must visit if you're in the area. With views from inside and out it's a summer lover's dream. Stop in any time of day for anything from a Bloody Mary (just one of their delicious signature cocktails) to craft beer or boutique wines. Their 'sunset sips' menu is a perfect pre dinner indulgence.

SWIM PUTTY BEACH

Putty Beach is a calm and stunning, untouched beach that forms part of Bouddi National Park. If you're not a fan of crowds, you'll love this little slice of heaven with the Aussie bush as its backdrop. Perfect for a gentle swim or snorkel (be aware it's not patrolled), you're sure to feel free here, far away from civilisation.

SURF MACMASTERS BEACH

Macs can be a really fun right hand point break if the swell's up. When it's small though, you can usually find a fun little sandbar somewhere along the beach. One of the less crowded surf spots on the Central Coast.

SUNRISE BOX HEAD LOOKOUT

We love it when we have to earn our sunrise view, it makes for a feeling of productivity even before your morning coffee! It's an easy stroll through bushland to get here (don't go alone) and well worth the alarm clock setting to watch the sun rise over a still rugged and pristine landscape. Views all the way from Hawkesbury River, Lion Island, Northern Beaches Peninsula and out to the ocean.

SUNSET LOBSTER BEACH

The best part of this area of the Central Coast is that it's surrounded by national park and so is a rare quiet and unspoiled landscape not far from Sydney. Lobster Beach is the hidden gem of it all. Park in the carpark and walk down to this beautiful private harbour cove for a swim, snorkel and the best seat in the house for a sunset picnic. If you're lucky, you might even get the beach to yourself.
